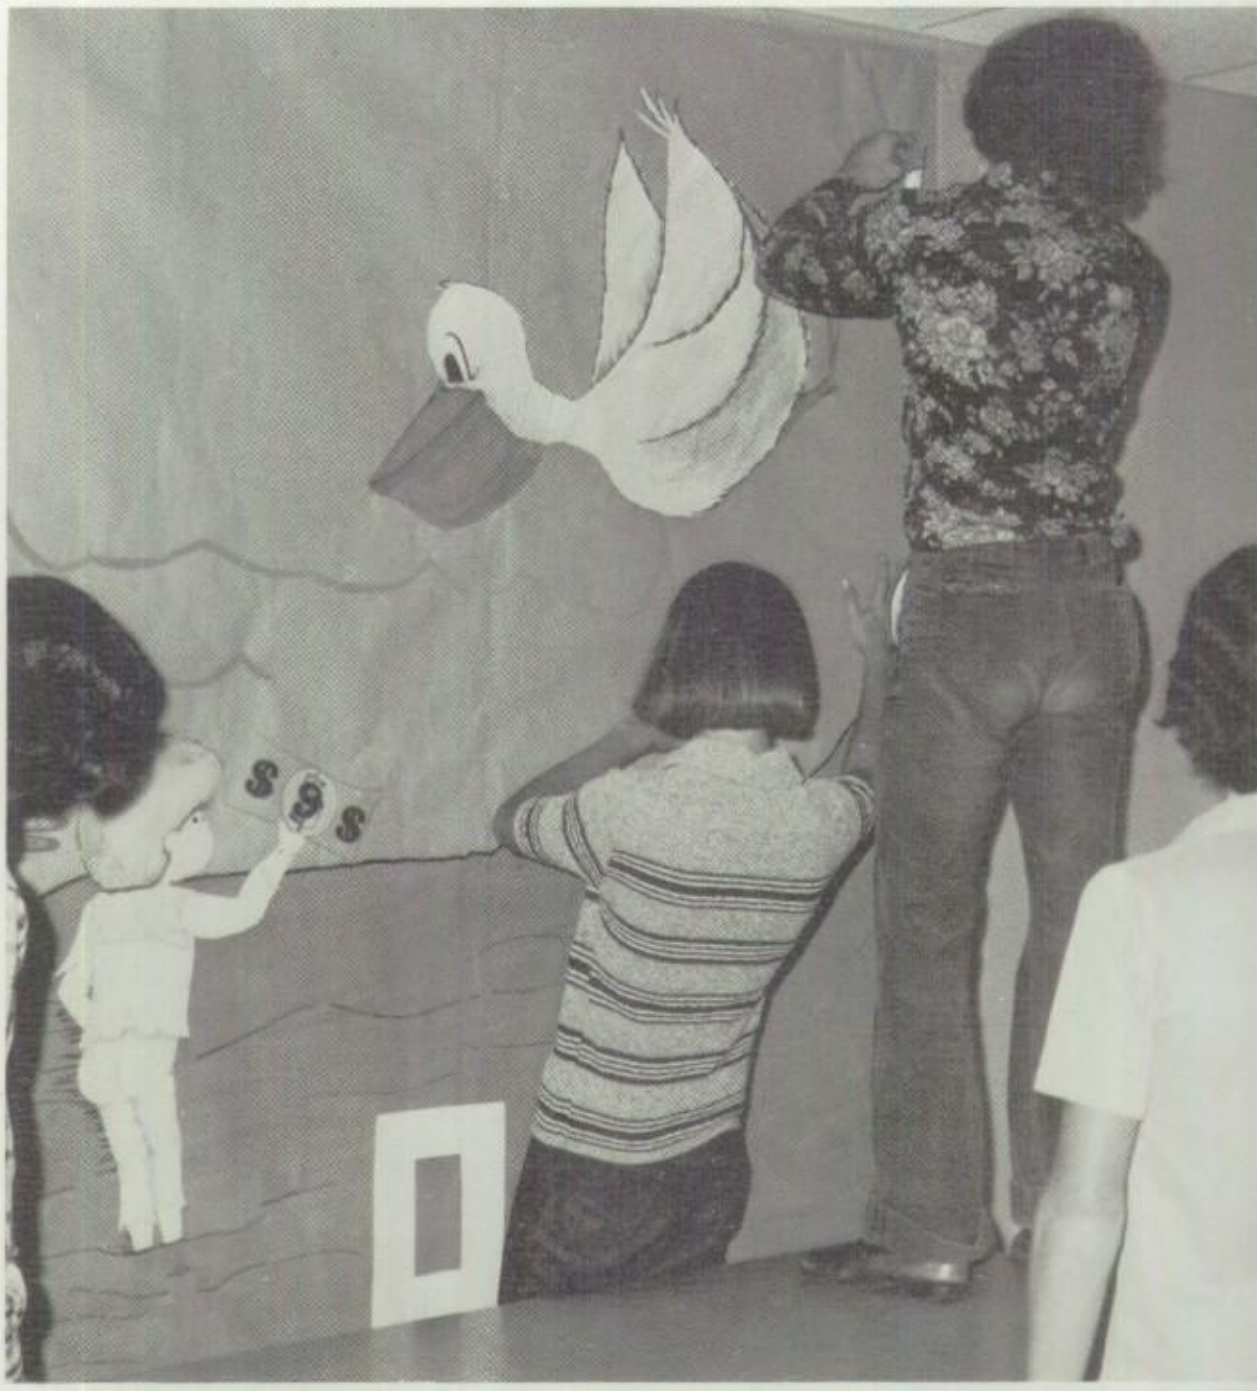
FLARE Sales requires extra work from staff members

Heralded by posters and announcements, the 1975 FLARE went on sale during the first two weeks in October.

Striving for a record sales goal, FLARE Staff members cornered students in classrooms, hallways, and school entrances and by October 16 their goal of 3,000 yearbook sales had been surpassed.

Higher printing costs and added color pages resulted in a $2.00 price increase in the '75 FLARE, thus bringing the price of the C.H.S. yearbook to an all-time high of $9.00.

In comparison with other schools in the area, who charged from $10 to $15 for their yearbooks, and had less pages and less color, C.H.S. students found that the FLARE still had the best for less.



(Far above) Much time and work was put into promoting the sales of the 1975 FLARE. (Above) FLARE Staff members sold yearbooks in the halls between classes. (Right) Hanging signs in the cafeteria proved to be a tedious process.

Young Life provides a basis for new friendships

Although still fairly new around Conroe High, Young Life's membership grew rapidly this year. Through this organization, members were able to participate in many activities, one being a trip to Colorado at Christmas time.

Spirit flowed through Conroe High as the mighty Tigers fought their way to another 16-AAAA championship. After suffering their only loss to Bryan earlier in the season and a near miss tie with Westchester the Tigers were to represent District 16-AAAA again. Scared by their first loss and backed by thousands the Tigers stepped up to Bryan only to be defeated for the second time. The victory stopped but the spirit lived on.

Student Body shows support at Pep Rallies

Each week during football season, the cheerleaders led a spirited student body in yells to boost the morale of the football team. Although students were not required to be there, the gym was full with many loyal fans. Tiger spirit was seen everywhere — the Golden Girls, twirlers, cheerleaders and the student body. The Conroe Tigers were something to be proud of.

Hall Competition adds color to Conroe High

Hall competition preparations were begun weeks before Homecoming to allow ample time to think of ideas and carry them out for each of the four separate halls. Class officers were mainly responsible for the work, but many students turned out at various advance work parties and also at decoration night. This competition built up spirit in many individuals and set the mood for a variety of activities on Friday.

Paint Parties . . . overflowing with Tiger spirit

Paint Parties created an atmosphere of enthusiasm for the 1974 Tiger football season. Colorful and creative signs, painted at students' homes, exhibited the perpetual spirit of each class. Pep rallies, brightened by these signs, expressed the unending spirit of the Tigers' loyal fans.

Career Night . . . a taste of tomorrow

Looking towards the future, upperclassmen of Conroe High turned in large numbers for Career Night '74. The evening's activities proved to supply valuable information on some twenty colleges and careers.

Excited Juniors flocked to the cafeteria in early December to pick up long awaited class rings. Though prices for the rings had increased, Juniors seemed undaunted by the high cost. The traditional turning of the rings was carried on for many days afterward.

Goblins, witches, clowns and princesses all found their way to the Golden Girl Halloween party held at the home of sponsor, Mrs. Dotye Barnes. Refreshments, games and costume competition helped to make the evening enjoyable for all. A final skit presented by the social officers and class representatives, revolving around Golden Girl fashions, ended the evening with a roar of laughter.

Book Fair spells success for Student Council

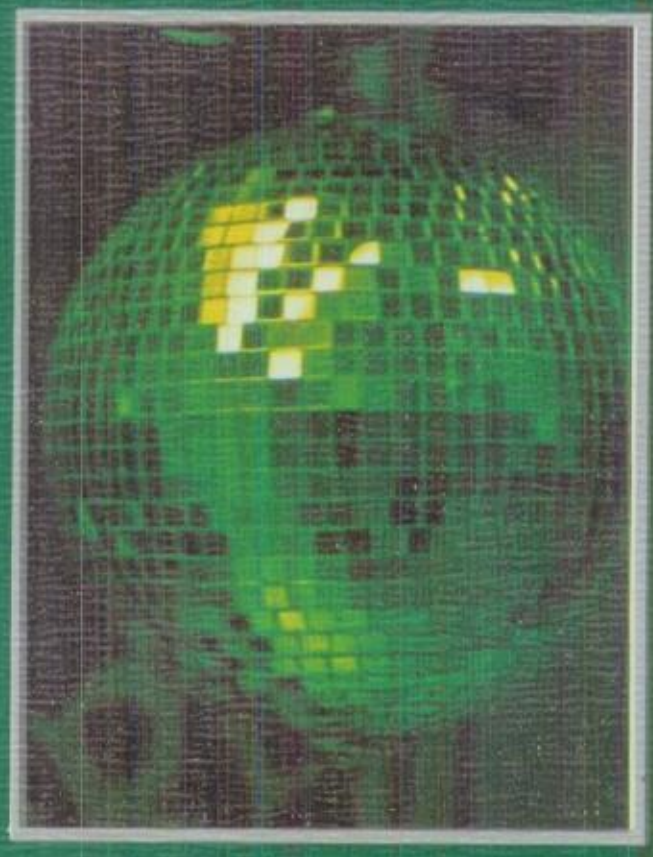
A CHS Christmas . . .



Modern and traditional displays of Christmas motifs, colorful decorations, and luminous scenes — produced by the Conroe High Art Department brightened the already present Christmas spirit and unfolded pleasant anticipation of the holiday season.

NHS opens Christmas season with a party

Debbie Buckalew's home was the scene for the National Honor Society's annual Christmas party. Mr. Glen Winn and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray acted as chaperones for the many members in attendance. Guests participated in several games including ping-pong and pool. This party marked the beginning of the celebration of the Christmas season for National Honor Society members.

FHA celebrates holidays with a Mother-Daughter banquet

FHA's yearly Mother-Daughter Christmas banquet, held at April Sound proved to be an evening of good food and fine entertainment. Charlene Nicholson, president of Chapter I, acted as presiding officer and conducted the opening and closing of the meeting. Guests were each given a ticket to enable them to win a door prize ranging from photo albums to a floral arrangement.

Seniors view new horizons as graduation approaches

As graduation approached Seniors became involved in preparations for their departure from high school. Being measured for their caps and gowns, ordering invitations, and receiving their ranks in class were just a few of the pre-commencement activities. The awarding of diplomas in May was the final highlight of the Seniors' high school years.

English classes once again entered into the turmoil of Junior class magazine week. A pep talk and display of prizes, given on February 13 to kick-off the drive, spurred students on to reach their goal. Each student seemed enveloped in the enthusiasm of their class, as they attempted to top the $36,317 goal of the previous year. This money was used for the presentation of the Jr.-Sr. prom.

The Flare Staff presents "Reflections of the Renaissance"

Or long-haired page in crimson clad,
Goes by toward Camelot:"
— Alfred, Lord Tennyson

One hundred and forty-eight courtiers experienced their own re-awakening to an elegant, cultural heritage within the Renaissance theme of the annual Coronation ceremony for the Queen of the 1975 FLARE.

Miss Laura Robbins, Industrial Arts Club representative, captured the prized crown before her myriad-arrayed ladies-in-waiting and escorts and a standing-room-only crowd.

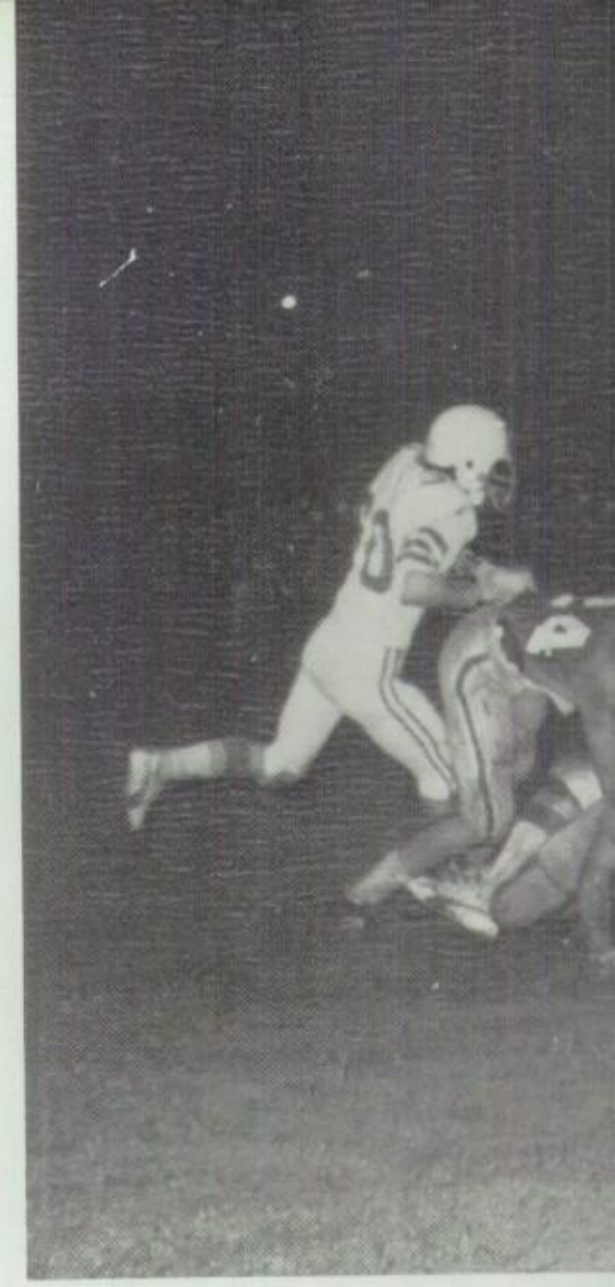
Pre-District '74 . . . hopes and doubts



Tiger Stadium once again welcomed the multitude of anxious Conroe fans as another year of football competition began. Although most season openers produce an air of excitement, the initial game of the '74 season provided more than its share. Conroe and Austin Reagan, two traditional powerhouses, would come to grips in what many thought would be a prelude to the state finals. Unfortunately for the Reagan fans, the hopes of the Tigers became reality as the Conroe defense shut down the Raiders' offense and allowed only 7 points, while the Cat's own offense racked up 20 points. With such an awe inspiring victory over Reagan behind them the Tigers ventured forth to face their 1973 bi-district rival, Bryan, at the Vikings' home field. Tiger backers once again talked about an undefeated season but the Bryan Vikings and a rain soaked field drowned out their hopes as the Tigers fell 47-0. Conroe thus ended the pre-district season on an embarrassing note that aroused the question "Can the Tigers come back?" Coach W. T. Stapler stated it plainly after the game, "That game will either make us or break us."

District '74: Tigers dominate once again

Conroe's ability to perform consistently in the 1974 pre-district campaign was skeptically viewed in the eyes of Tiger fans but this lack of ability was soon disproved by the excellent play of the team in district competition. With the embarrassment behind them, the Tigers set out to prove they were truly number one. Jersey Village posed the first threat to the Tiger's reign as they took a 14-7 halftime lead. But the Tigers were not to be outdone as they exploded for twenty points in the third quarter and rolled to a 27-14 win over the Falcons. Memorial was the next Conroe test and the Tigers responded to the hometown crowd and strutted to a 27-3 victory. Tully Stadium became the "penalty bowl" as the Tigers of Conroe and the Tigers of Spring Woods battled it out and Conroe managed to squeak out a 15-12 triumph in the penalty riddled game. First year 16-4A member Stratford became the next victim of the Tiger claw as Conroe shut out the Spartans 35-0. Conroe then traveled to Cy-Fair Stadium to face the Cy-Fair Bobcats. The Tiger defense sealed off all threats of the Cy-Fair running attack and Conroe's offense clicked as they marched on to win 26-6. Spring Branch came to town to face Conroe in the 1974 Homecoming game and the Tigers responded well to the exes' appearances as the defense stymied the talented Bear passing attack. The offense performed well as the Tigers scored their second shutout of the season by a 17-0 deficit. The Tigers began to smell a championship as they traveled to Tully Stadium to face Westchester. The scrappy Wildcats caught Conroe napping and pulled off a 7-7 tie. Another first year member to the district ventured into Conroe next and they probably wished they had never shown up. The Tigers punished the Northbrook Raiders 50-0 in an offensive show by Conroe. The Tigers had now proven to everyone that they were number one in the district as they gained their second title in as many years.

Bi-District: another year to wait

Revenge was all that the Conroe Tigers could think of while preparing for their long awaited rematch with the Bryan Vikings. After their astonishing upset by the Vikings early in the season, the Tigers were to travel once again to Bryan, but this time it was the battle for the bi-district championship. Kyle Field, on the campus of Texas A and M, was the stage for the showdown between the bi-district rivals as Conroe drew first blood on a fumbled pitchout from quarterback Greg Clark to Thomas Harris. As the ball bounced into the endzone, tight end Mark Turnbull recovered it for what turned out to be the only Tiger score of the night. The Vikings quickly retaliated on a long pass and went ahead on the successful conversion attempt. The first half ended at 7-6 and this score lasted until the third quarter. In the last eighteen minutes of play, costly penalties and drive stalling fumbles by Conroe enabled Bryan to have excellent field position. They took advantage of the mistakes for two quick scores and once again the Tigers returned home for another year's wait.

J.V. proves their worth

A will to win, combined with the strength to endure earned the Tiger Junior Varsity their second district title in as many years. With Coaches Ken Burkhalter and Bill Estes at the helm, these young Tigers surged toward a season record of nine wins against a single loss. Their only setback came in a last-minute 14-6 decision to Spring Branch.

The decisive way in which the J.V. team beat their opponents led Coach Burkhalter to remark, "The kids played really hard and deserved to win. A lot of these kids who played junior varsity football this year should help the varsity out next year." If this past year is any indication, next year should be another winning season for varsity backers.

Sophs settle for tie

"It was a team effort and we're awfully proud of these kids," stated Sophomore coach Mike Barber after his team had sloshed by Northbrook 38-6 on a rain-soaked C.H.S. field.

Perhaps these words sum up the kind of year the Sophomore team had as they compiled a 7-2 season which included a 5-1 district record. Despite having to share the title with Spring Branch and Cy-Fair, the surging Sophs showed the great poise and confidence characteristic of a winning team. After a heart-breaking 13-12 loss to Cy-Fair, the Sophs stunned Spring Branch 42-15 to earn their share of the title.

Frosh: dedication results in a championship

By anyone's standards a champion is one who will always try to do his best. As their record shows, the 1974 Freshman team proved they are worthy of being called champions. While en route to the district championship, the powerful Frosh, under the guidance of John Kelley and Elmer Gipson, devastated each team they faced. Only one time this year was their supremacy challenged as Westchester won a close 8-7 decision. Although their hopes of an undefeated season were shattered, the young Frosh proved to everyone that hard work and dedication have their just rewards.

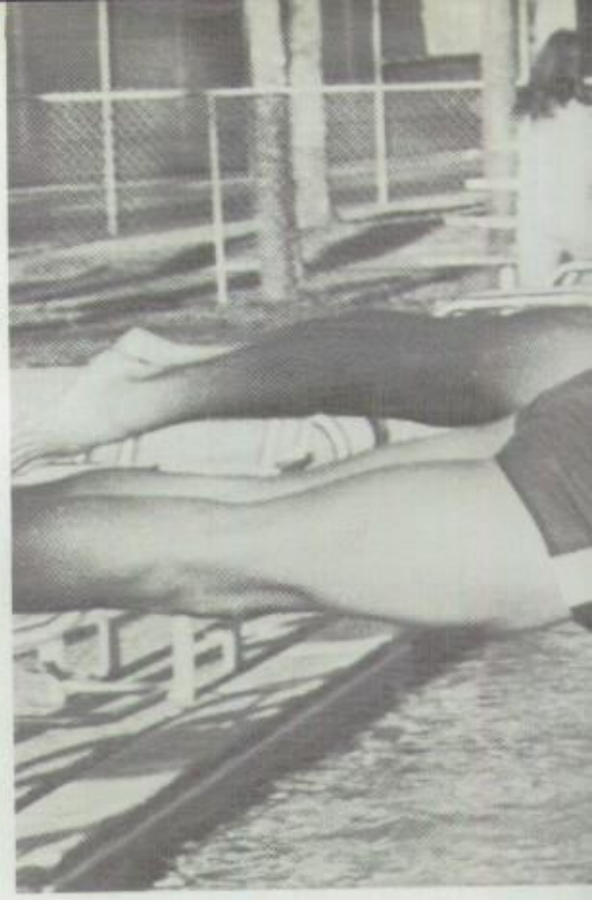
Swimming: a search for perfection



With an optimism stemming from past successes, the 1975 Conroe High swim team concentrated on developing a competitive edge. Endowed with experience and a new crop of young talent, Coach John Coburn organized a team that prided themselves on the advancements they had made in their brief four year existence. As the new season began, the tankers took to their duties with a vigor borne out of many long, difficult hours of practice. It was this vigor that allowed the CHS swim team to establish standards capable of instilling a winning tradition into a maturing sport.

Basketball victories hard to find Enthusiasm was high with the opening of the 1974-75 basketball season as Coach Larry Berkman made his Varsity debut. But this excitement was soon lost like many of the games in which the Tigers took part after the campaign began. Conroe closed out the pre-district season with a disappointing 4-9 slate and hoped that district competition would have a better outcome. These hopes were drowned as the Tigers lost seven straight district contests before gaining their first victory. This victory against the Stratford Spartans began a three game winning streak in which Conroe played the type of basketball people thought they were capable of. The Tigers then fell back into inconsistency and hoped that next year would be better.

Tigerettes eye state championship

Confronted with the task of out performing the previous year's basketball squad the Tigerettes devoted all of their efforts into gaining a state championship. This was the task of the 1974-75 Tigerettes and from the beginning of the season the girls proved they were more than capable of carrying out such an endeavor. During their pre-district schedule, the girls compiled an astounding 11-3 record and were in excellent shape for district play. The Tigerettes out classed every district opponent as they exhibited superb ball handling and high scoring. Sophomore Missy Weisinger averaged nearly twenty points per game offensively and this type of play combined with outstanding defense provided by Jimmie Ann Morrow and Cindy Wood made Conroe unstoppable as they traveled through zone play undefeated. Next they faced Jersey Village in the zone playoff for the district title. The Tigerettes demolished the Falcons in the first two games of a best of two out of three series. Therefore the girls took the District 9-3A title for the third consecutive year. Coach Marsha Porter's basketball team then eyed the state playoffs as they had taken their first step toward their goal of a state championship.

Cross-country: Tigers take second in district

One of the highlights of 1975 was the birth of a new sport, cross-country, and the debut of an untested coach, David Greenfield. However inexperienced they may have seemed, the two proved to be valuable combination as they captured second place overall at the 16-4A district meet. Personal satisfaction and team spirit proved to be their strong points as each trackster strived for prominence in such a young and demanding sport.

Volleyball '75: Exellence in performance

Filled with the hope of attaining the goals they had set for themselves, the girl's volleyball team prepared to launch an all out assault on the district championship. Certainly the quest for this goal has led coach Carol Putman and her team into many hours of rigorous training, but the girls took it in stride as they prepared to surpass last year's squad. By using the skill obtained from long practice sessions the Tigerettes opened season play by winning 2 out of 3 games from Pearland. Thus began the '75 season.

Track: Tigers seek district championship

Track season brought on an attempt by the Conroe tracksters to regain the District 16-4A crown after losing their seat to Memorial last year. It was the first time in thirteen years that the team had failed to gain the district championship and this season the Tigers were determined to gain back their throne. Coach Elmer Gipson started rugged workouts immediately after the Christmas vacation and continued them until the first meet. Major points of strength for Conroe included the hurdles, pole-vault, and the mile relay. With this determination and champion instinct the Tigers were sure to regain the district crown.

Girl's Track: Tigerettes strive for state

Challenged by the performance of last year's state champions, the 1975 girl's track team eagerly accepted the task of proving themselves winners. Experience was the key factor in the Tigerettes' success as Coach Marsha Porter assembled a talented team of competitors. Victory was foremost in the minds of all the girls as they practiced to improve their individual specialties. High standards and determination should, in future years, provide the basis for many more successful individual competitors.

Tennis team progresses

Aubrey Frazier, in his second year as tennis coach, developed the Conroe netters into a competitive team capable of maintaining a championship atmosphere. With an air of complete confidence about them, the Tigers asserted their right to the 16-4A district title through unparalleled singles and doubles play. The steady play exhibited by Conroe during tournament play reflected their strenuous preparation and the effectiveness of "Lucky" Frazier's coaching methods. More important however was the continuation of a basic aspect of the Conroe tennis program, that being the experience of the senior netters coupled with the all out hustle of the younger players. This factor provided the team with a needed one-two punch which allowed them to be strong contenders in any tournament in which they participated.

Girl's golf achieves championship status

Eager to repeat last year's near-perfect performance, the girls' golf team earnestly worked toward the goal of a state championship. Coming off last season's third place state ranking, the girls' confidence and self-assurance combined with the capable leadership of Coach Carol Putman, contributed to their ultimate goal. As the season neared, the girls sharpened their talents on the greens of the River Plantation golf course, in hopes of establishing a state of excellence.

Golfers pursue third consecutive district title

Tiger golfers returned to the courses in the spring of 1975 intent on preserving their claim to the District 16-4A crown. For the past two years Conroe dominated district competition due to the outstanding play of various young players. The team boasted a great amount of playing experience in their predominately underclassman team. Coach Buddy Moorehead's golf team was anticipated to be a chief competitor in the tournaments in which they participated, but to improve over last year's team they had to win the state championship. The combination of depth and experience exhibited in pre-district play made victory in the quest for the district title almost a certainty.

Lettermen provide backbone for baseball

After completing last year's district race with an 8-8 record, the Tiger baseball squad was out to improve themselves in 1975. With nine lettermen back, Conroe had the backbone of a successful team as Coach Mike Ferrell drilled the Tigers despite the traditional bad weather. Recruits from last season's junior varsity provided the Tigers with the talent they lacked and the team was ready to bring the district championship to Conroe.

Boys' and Girls' State representatives exhibit standards of good citizenship

Sponsored jointly by the American Legion and the Rotary Club, Boys' and Girls' State representatives were chosen on the basis of scholastic aptitude, leadership ability, and overall personality. In the summer preceding their senior year, these representatives attended conventions in which they studied the fundamental aspects of our state government, and set up their own legislatures.

The Girls' State Convention, located in Seguin, was highlighted by a journey to Austin, where the girls witnessed the state government in session. In addition to this, the Boys' State Convention, headquartered at the University of Texas campus, sat in on Constitutional Convention sessions, and had the opportunity of meeting Governor Briscoe.

Miss Laura Robbins — 1974 Homecoming Queen . . .

"Throughout the past four years I've learned what fulfillment really is. I tried to grasp it through involvement in one activity after another, but only found myself further back from where I started. I soon got tired of what I was and saw around me. I began seeking a God I had always heard about. As a result, I found a God who is still as alive today as He was in Biblical days. He is a God of miracles, healing power, and love that passes all understanding. All I did was 'seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things were added.' (Mt. 6:33) My love be with you all in Christ Jesus."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PLAYING THIS GAME:

There are 4,000 players, and each receives 180 turns per year, Monday through Friday, each week, from 8:20 to 3:00. The player must spin to see how far he may go each turn, and when he lands on a square, he must follow directions on that square. There are a limited number of qualifications to play this game (see "Requirements"). There is no time limit, but most players prefer to get through the game as soon as possible. Upon finishing one trip around the game board, players are allowed a two and one half month rest. Players are advised not to get discouraged (see "Object of the Game").

We wish each player luck as he attempts to play the game.

   c. a knack for intimidation
4. An alarm clock, and/or the instinctive ability to get to school and classes six times per day ON TIME.
5. A desire to suffer.

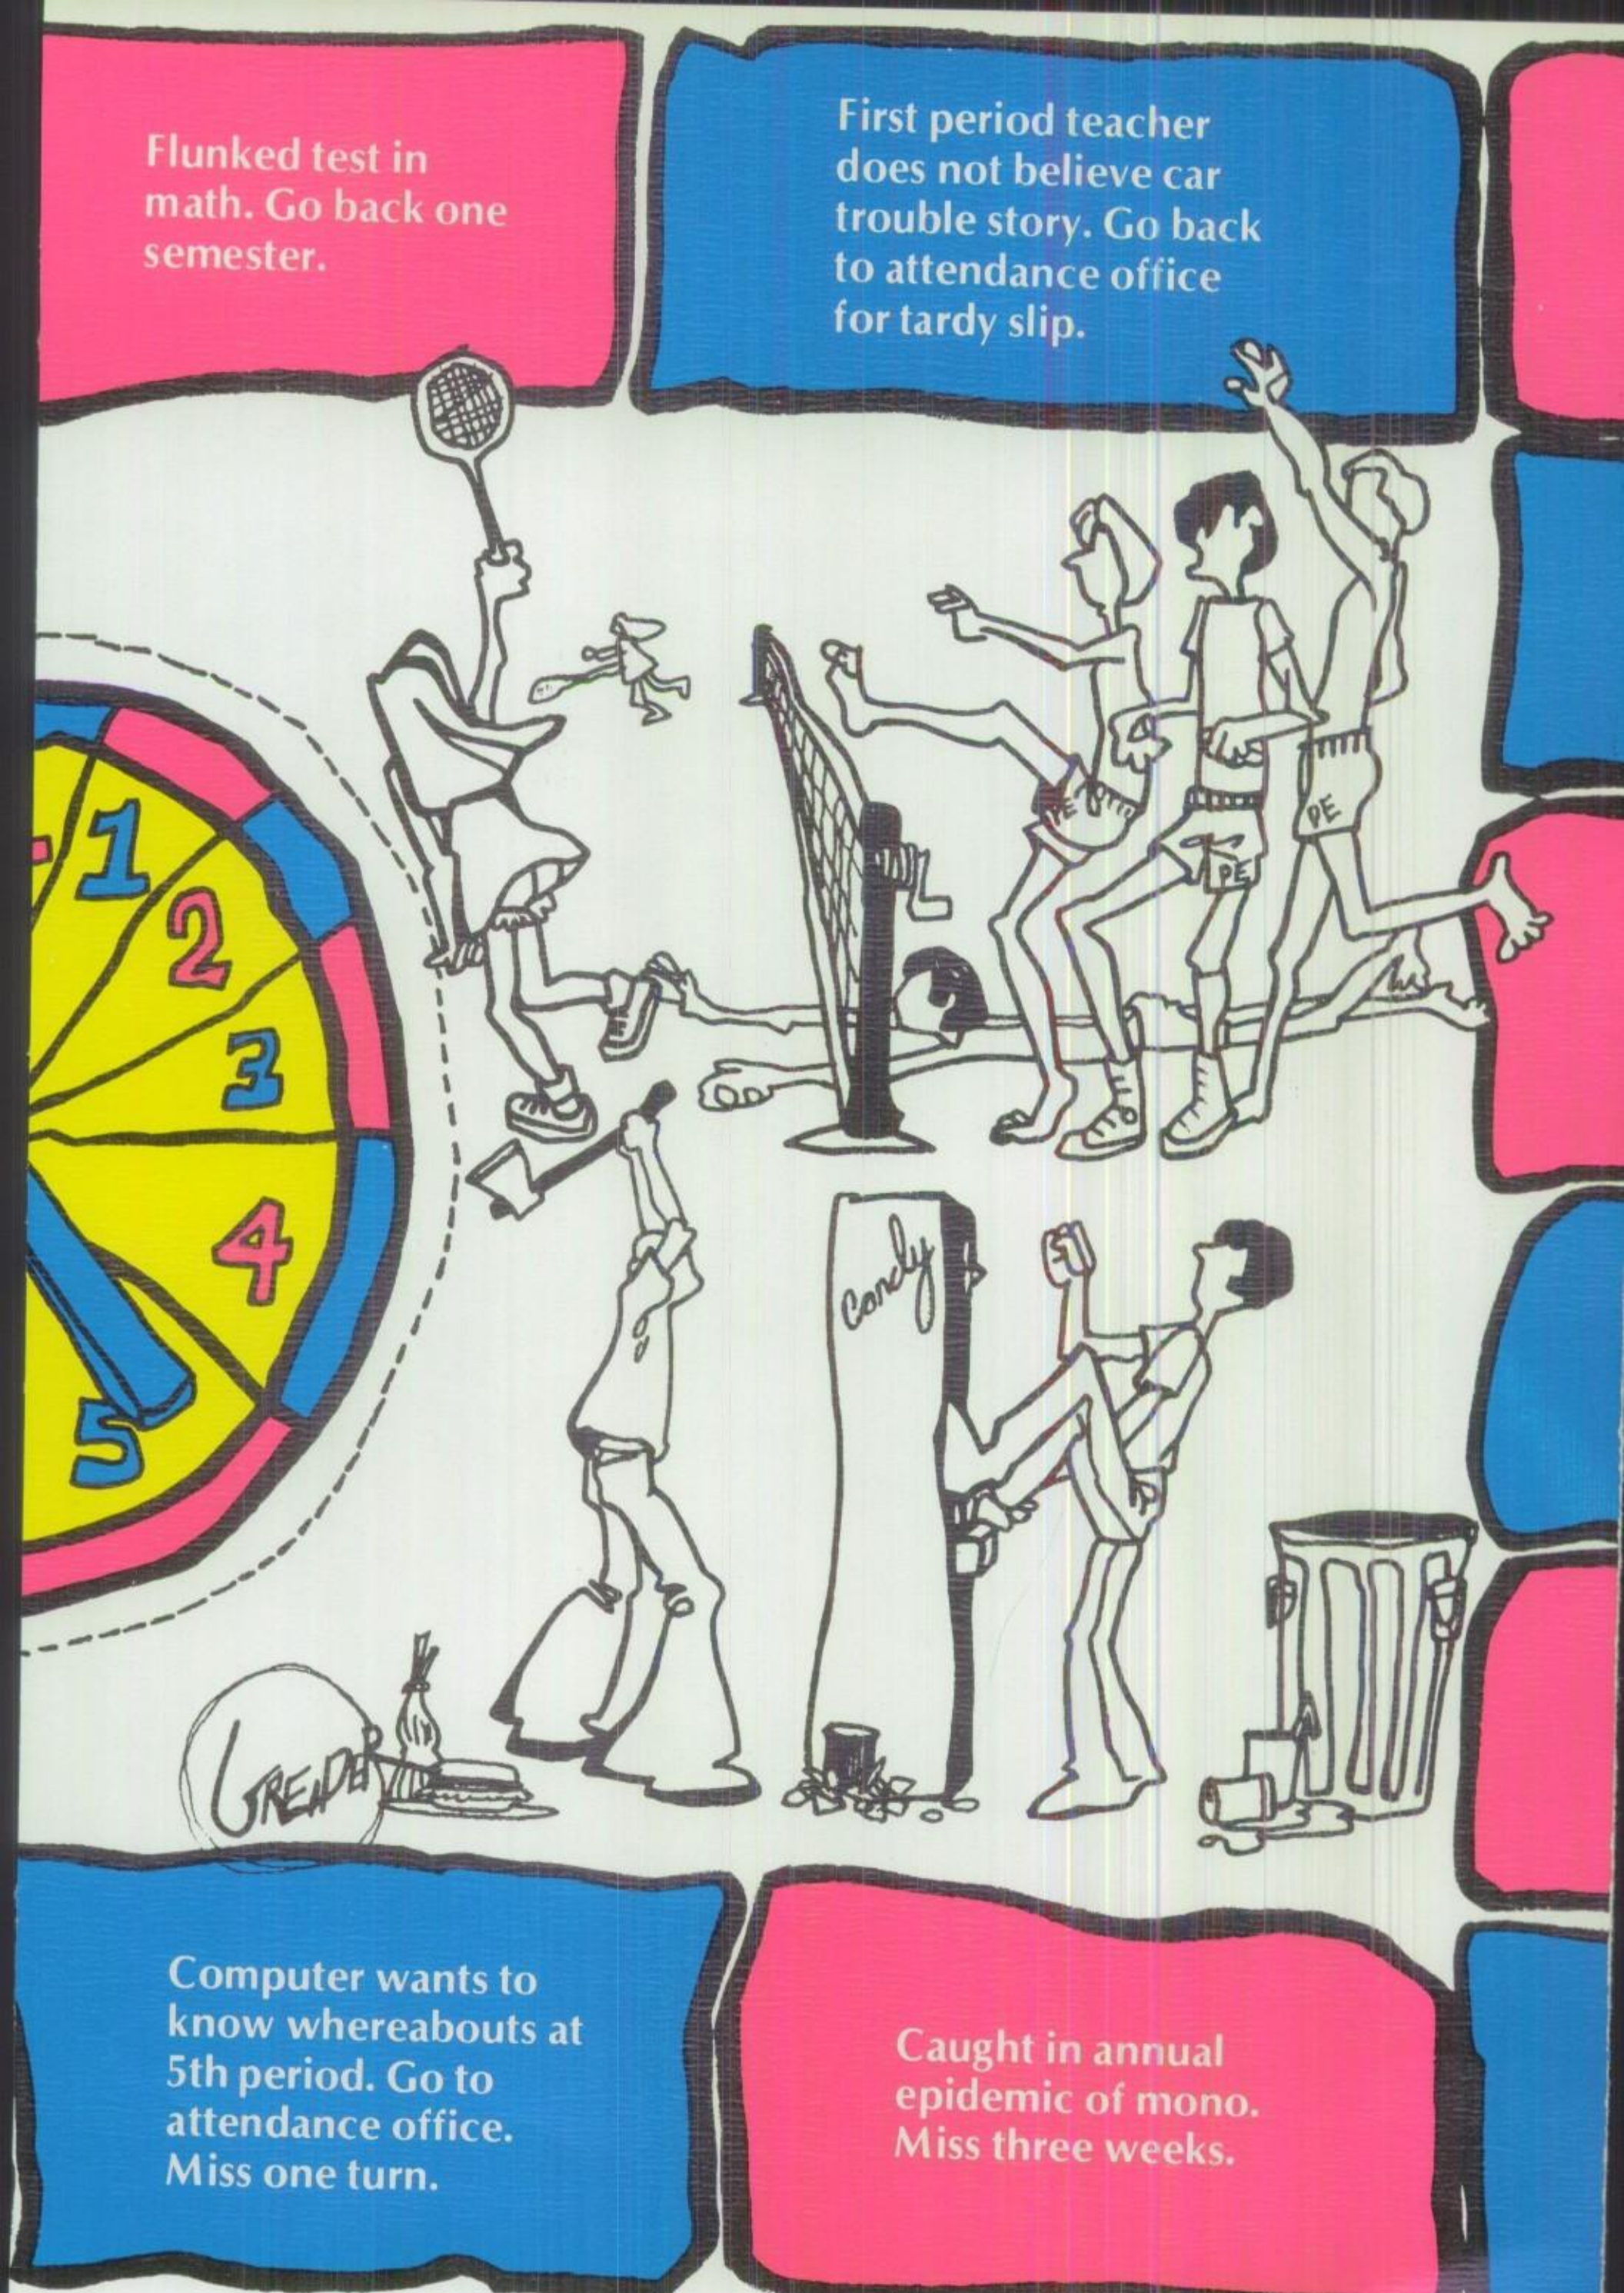
OBJECT OF THE GAME

The object of the game is to complete four trips around the game board. This may take a great deal of time to accomplish (usually four years, and, unfortunately for some, longer). Players are usually enthusiastic as they pass GO, but as they near completion of each revolution around the gameboard, may find it increasingly difficult to concentrate on the game. At each revolution around the board, the player is rewarded with added respect, responsibilities, and greater challenges. The rewards of this game are sometimes questionable, but always many and varied. Knowledge, experience, and preparation for the future are all represented by the final prize — a diploma.

Flunked test in math. Go back one semester.

First period teacher does not believe car trouble story. Go back to attendance office for tardy slip.



Computer wants to know whereabouts at 5th period. Go to attendance office. Miss one turn.

Caught in annual epidemic of mono. Miss three weeks.

"The ratification of the 26th Amendment has been accomplished in the shortest time of any amendment in American history. This fact affirms our Nation's confidence in its youth and its trust in their responsibility. It also reinforces our young people's dedication to a system of government whose Constitution permits ordered change. I urge them to honor this right by exercising it — by registering and voting in each election."

President Richard M. Nixon on certifying the 26th Amendment, which gives 18, 19 and 20 year olds the right to vote in all elections.

A forthcoming federal recommendation to fluoridate all drinking water as a means of saving the nation billions of dollars in dental bills may spotlight that issue for the first time in this county.

Currently no fluoride is being added to any drinking water source in the entire county. The most common response when asked why: "It's never come up

CONROE – A 16 baby was found dead in in Bennett Estates 2 apparently a victim of suf caused by a butane flaming out of control house.

The body of Shawn David I was taken to Medical Cen Hospital. An autopsy was order by Jimmie Dinkins, newly i stalled Justice of the Peace, Pct 2, who was called to the scene o the accident Saturday morning.

Also in the house early Saturday were the young boy's father, John Rains and his grandfather. The grandfather suffered a severely burned foot when he tried to shut off the butane burner. The burner was shooting flames into the air. It is theorized that the burner's discharge of carbon monoxide caused the death of the young child, who was sleeping in a back bedroom. The father and grandfather were in another room. The burner was in the living room.

Armed Robbery

Three young men robbed the Shenandoah Gulf Station early this morning of $2, but they used a .22 caliber pistol in the robbery and thus subjected themselves to a charge of armed robbery.

'Officer, I Just Didn't See The Sign

It's not likely these signs are doing their job in their present condition. The Children's sign in Willis and the Curve sign near the Oklahoma community in south county seem to indicate that somebody has not heeded them.

C Reid;
WHAT WILL YOU DO WITHOUT US IN YOUR CLASS NEXT YEAR? HOPE YA HAVE A SUPER SUMMER & STAY COOL! GIGI B.

Mrs. Reid,

Although I haven't been here that long I can still say you are one of the best teachers around. you don't seem to change at school any more than you do any where else. Most teacher are stuck-up to their students. they don't act like people at school. Stay like you are and I'm sure all of your students in the future will like you as well as a person. Not just any ole dumb teach.

Remember us. (your 1st period class)

Luck at Conroe High & IN the future. Go Lady Vikings

Love ya,

Hey! Wild Woman! Tell your goodlookin Teller I said "Hellow!

Hey! I have Really enjoyed my 1st & 2nd semester with ya! Although I talked alot but what is a mouth for. Remember our ROMANTIC talk at the PANCAKE House, how ROMANTIC(← silly) You are one of my favorite teachs 'cause you are like an every day person. The other teachers act so fake in school but when that 3:00 bell Rings and their out of sight of their crumy students they turn into A different person. That's why your my favorite, 'cause when that bell Rings for 3:00 your still the same old person. I guess that's why ya have alot of Friends. Remember all that Running I did back & forth from the 10's buildins to the Freshman buildins & Goins to Mrs. Hopkins ROOM) Oh! THAT WAS Fun! Well I'm About to Run out of ROOM.
